

INSTALLATION COMPONENTS

Standard Installation Offer

- Provide and install NEMA 14–50 outlet
- Provide and install new 40-amp breaker in panel
- Provide and install code-compliant electrical wiring, protective tubing, and weatherproofing as required
- Use #6-gauge wire
- Create, submit, and pay for permit documentation and fees
- Perform main panel load calculation

|              |  | Charged by Chevrolet + permit fee |  | Installation Credit (including permit)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
|--------------|--|-----------------------------------|--|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| Requirements |  |                                   |  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Credit towards installation by BMEV electrician only</li> <li>• Customer's non-primary residence (within Canada, proof of ownership required)</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                    |  |
|              |  |                                   |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
| Deviations   |  |                                   |  | OR any of the following on a primary residence: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Detached garage</li> <li>• Trenching required</li> <li>• Panel upgrade required</li> <li>• Drywall replacement/repair</li> <li>• Does not cover obsolete breakers such as Zinsco, Federal Pacific &amp; Bulldog Pushmatic</li> </ul> |  |
|              |  |                                   |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |